

The Ten Commandments

As we continue our unit topic Identity and Sin, today we will focus on the Ten Commandments. The Ten Commandments also known as the moral laws are very important for helping us to know the difference between what is right and wrong in the eyes of God.

The Ten Commandments were given to the Israelites to set them apart from the rest of the world and serve as a guideline to live a holy life. These laws are applicable to all believers. When we follow these rules, they help us have a good relationship with God and the people around us.

Can you list all the Ten Commandments in order? Do you know what these rules mean? Which rule or commandment is the greatest of all? In Matthew 22: 36-40, Jesus said all the rules can be summarized with the following two rules: First- “You shall LOVE the Lord your God with all your heart, and your soul, and your mind” Second- “You shall LOVE your neighbor as yourself”.

Why did Jesus say that all the laws are summed up by the LOVE we have towards God and the people around us? That is because our obedience or disobedience comes from how much we love other things compare to God or the people around us. Jesus makes it too simple for us to remember God’s rule by telling us that next time when we are tempted to break one of God’s rule, we need to ask ourselves that whether our action could be seen as the action of loving God and others or it shows the opposite. If we find ourselves NOT Loving God or others, then we are disobeying God rules and we need to repent and ask forgiveness.
